“The Transformation of our character is more revolution....forged from battles fought far more than by beliefs held....suddenly come to the realization that you are a different person than the one who began the journey....changed....forever....A Revolution of the Soul....

The Journey itself will change you forever-not only your priorities but your passions. It alters not only your direction but your desires. It transforms not only your actions but your values.

It is nothing less than leaving the fake for the real. ....”

In deep thought I have come to acknowledge that those certain cycles that have played out for millenniums, are progressively also coming to an end. Although we have for so long justified, found reasons, why so many things have occurred the way they have, a time in the cycle of life has reached where change is now evidently clear and necessary.

“We have a wonderful opportunity.....to release the usual out of date thoughts, beliefs and behaviours from our energy fields as we prepare ourselves to receive and accept the new energies in whatever form they may be, from the upcoming shifts into the Light.”

<https://www.lightmessenger.co.uk/a-rose-born-from-winters-light/>

“.....indigenous cultures were extremely advanced. They understood how to live in harmony with the Earth, and their teachings were very profound, insightful and spiritual. You don't need to look far to see how knowledgeable they were, and their knowledge of our planet, the cosmos, science and mathematics still baffles experts today.

These cultures also had prophecies, and many of them speak of a time when all of this knowledge would be lost, but then would eventually return to Earth. Prophecies speak of indigenous cultures and bloodlines reuniting. We're living in a special time right now because that ancient indigenous prophecy wasn't just referring to the 'spiritual awakening' of their own people, but of the entire planet, and this is the process we're going through today.

..... The time has come where many desire a cleaner, greener, more cooperative human experience where everybody can thrive. Humanity has the potential to live in peace and meet the needs of everyone easily. We can live in harmony with nature and work with it, not against it.

“There have been wounds of injustice, of oppression, of colonization, of greed, of superstition, all those things which injure the human heart. At the same time there's been no way for this to be expressed, it's been held inside. So this ancestral wound is this wound that's been carried on from generation to generation to generation, this intergenerational trauma. But it was also prophesied and promised that after a period of 500 years that a great, great spiritual spring time would emerge with such power and such intensity that all that had been covered in the cold bitter snow would be revealed and cleansed and purified. And that we would emerge galvanized, reunited as not only the reunion of the Condor and Eagle, but a reunion of the entire human family. This time is now. – Indigenous Elder.”

“How does one express the depth of heartache and loss at the hands of someone who either had no understanding or concept of what they were doing, or were heartless and cold? How do we remove ourselves from feeling victimised at the hands of those lost themselves? And how do we forgive ourselves for doing what we did not understand at the time upon doing them? How does one explain what they feel if the pain or remorse or regret or hurt is too deep? How can one even begin to express what someone else either won't be able to fathom, accept or respect what is from the heart?

Silence sometimes is deeply enriching because it gives one the time to go deep within and reflect. To be. To rejuvenate. Some of us withdraw in total silence to observe, to watch some aspects of life or for part of it to maybe even collapse. Or because one does not know what else to do anymore. Some to save themselves, whilst others to save others, and remarkably for some at a sacrificial cost. For a promise that they cannot even begin to explain into words, because it cannot be understood in the way the heart understands. Some withdraw to be able to find time to reflect, and walk the path of insight so as to begin to make sense of life. Silence sometimes is for those that are so deeply removed from the world because of what they feel in their heart. There are countless reasons for why some simply go into Silence.

In deep reflection the past few months and making even greater challenging changes, I begin to realise the depths of how monetary issues seem to steer many away from the most important matters in life that have far more worth. That when money disappears love remains. If Souls on Earth could come together and help one another, share tools, resources, abilities, and so forth, you will surprise yourselves just how love is more important and more powerful. Helping one another with no value of money, suddenly you realise you have won.

There are those most Beauty-Full moments where we find a word, a painting, a comforting soul who can give us warmth, love, hope, sunshine and respect; a motivational factor to find worth in life and love. To help us propel forward. To find meaning, reason to live.”

Redefining Collective

“The word collective was once considered following the norm. Following the ‘puppets’ who truly cannot represent a position or country, self evidently clear by looking at the world and what a mess they made of it. Collective was once a norm in itself. One had to follow to be in it, to fit in society, to fit in the group or be accepted. It lost its concept of what it was ought to have stood for in the first place. A lot has now changed.

Collective is more considered following not as such, but as in Uniting, as in coming together for the common good. Not against it but for it.

There is this remarkable Double Slit Experiment and it is worth noting just how Consciousness is Evolving. It is truly worth watching.

There is a difference between being an individual and contributing towards the Collective of today’s era, and ‘The individual versus the staged collective’

(<https://jonrappoport.wordpress.com/2017/07/09/the-individual-vs-the-staged-collective-3/> ; <https://jonrappoport.wordpress.com/2017/08/20/the-individual-vs-globalism-2/> ) .

True Collective means Coming together, in Love and Light, in Peace and for the common good.” PARA

“It takes humility and wisdom to recognize that there are many paths to the One, which support the kind of personal growth and evolution that we are looking for. Different individuals will benefit from different paths.....

.... Our collective evolution is not going to be fostered by efforts to align the entire population with a single path to the Divine, but rather in recognizing that we are all on our individual paths to the Divine, and a respect for and acceptance of each other’s paths is what really binds us at a deeper level.

As Thoreau once said, “If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away.”

You rebel by standing up and voicing your opinion when you see injustice.

We rebel by uniting in the face of adversity and saying we will no longer be divided by a small group of people who think they deserve everything at our expense!

We are going through this mass awakening together, the real enemy is greed! We rebel by giving!

Spiritual Ascension

Awakening of the Mind

This type of awakening comes when you experience a major epiphany or sudden mental realization.

Awakening of a New Personality

This type of transformation and ascension involves cutting away and moving past old limiting and toxic patterns and developing qualities such as self-acceptance, empowerment, and understanding.

Awakening of Spiritual Energy

Awakening of the Soul

Soul awakenings can be brief and sudden, or long and drawn out. Brief soul awakenings are often referred to in Zen Buddhism as 'Satori' which is the experience of seeing into one's true eternal nature. This glimpse of enlightenment is often short and doesn't last very long (one moment to a few days). On the other hand, long-term soul awakenings are experienced as a deepening of contact with one's Soul. This could involve consistently uniting with one's soul purpose, spirit guides, or higher self and thereby understanding and beginning to experience oneself as Eternal and Limitless.

Have you ever had a moment in which you felt the division between yourself and the World disintegrate? Have you ever shifted from the ego-perspective to the universal-perspective? Have you experienced any moments where you've felt deeply aligned with your life purpose? These are all signs of a soul awakening. Developing virtuous qualities such as compassion, tolerance, forgiveness, and unconditional love also accompany soul awakenings.

Total Awakening (Enlightenment)

.....total awakening is a gift of grace..... a Mystical Awakening. The ego is finally seen, understood, and overcome, and all that remains is the Pure Awareness, Presence, Love, and Truth.

“Where were you when there were cries of help?

Where were you when there were pleas for help?

Where were you when there was desperation to make a change?

Where were you when they plotted against humanity?

Where were you when they created havoc on Earth?

Were you a part of it or the victim?

Were you the initiator or the sufferer?

Were you the ignorant or the arrogant?

Were you the helper or the obstruction?

Were you aware?

Did you know?

Where are you now?

What path are you on? What path have you chosen in this changing world?

What will you do to help now?

What will you do to make a difference now?

What sort of difference will it be? For the better?"

The Ship arrives....

As he waited for the ship to return to take him home.....

He held onto the dream for so long and suddenly as the month of reaping he climbed to the hill without walls or barriers there it was, behold the ship coming.

The gates of his heart flung open, and his joy flew far over the sea. And he closed his eyes and prayed in the Silences of his soul.

But as he descended the hilltop a sadness came upon him, and there a thought in his heart....

How shall I go in peace and without sorrow? Not without a wound in the spirit shall I leave.

Long were the days of pain, and long were the nights of alones. Too many fragments of the spirit have I had to unite here.

My Heart filled.

The sea calls me, and I must embark.

For to stay, though the hours burn in the nights, is to freeze and crystalline and be bound in a mould.

But how shall I leave? I know A voice cannot carry the tongue and the lips that gave it wings.

I must fly like an eagle across the sun.

Looking back at the ship coming, his soul cries.

How often have you sailed in my dreams? And now you come in my awakening, which are my deeper dreams.

Ready am I to go, and my eagerness with sails full set awaits the wind.

But shall the day of parting be the day of gathering?

But the elders stood forth and said go not yet way from us. A noon tide have you been in our twilight, and your youth has given us dreams to dream. No strangers are you among us, nor a guest, but our son and our dearly beloved.

Let not the waves of the sea separate us now, and the years you have spent in our midst become a memory. You have walked among us a spirit, and your shadow has been a light upon our faces.

Much have we loved you. Our cries are loud, reveals before you. Love knows not its own depth until the hour of separation.

Those who stood near saw his tears falling.

Yet one soul who believed in him approached him, hailing for all to hear, Prophet of God, in quest of the uttermost, long have you searched for distances for your ship. And now your ship has come, and you must needs go.

Deep is your longing for the land of your memories and the dwelling place of your greatest desires; and our love would not bind you nor our needs hold you.

Yet we as before you leave us, that you speak to us and give us of your truth.
And we will give it unto our children, so it shall not perish.

wrote these words or if it is a combination of mine and other amazing authors. I

Many of us have become “nomads” in our Quest for Soul searching, Truth and Soul purpose. Unaware we find ourselves freely adapting constantly to New horizons, evolving, deepening our knowledge, wisdom, illumination, awakenings and evolution only to heal to then take flight again to our next destination.

Call it traveller, seeker, whatever. In today's time and Age it seems Nomadism no longer has that connotation it once did, nor the limited definition reserved for natives. It seems to have taken on a New form or norm of Life....A way of one finally finding opportunity to expand on their skills, talents, ability, knowledge, wisdom, ect. And continue the progress to aiming in reaching towards our Higher Good.

It's not until we turn around we realise how far we have travelled, what we have accomplished or achieved, and how much we have evolved in the process.

It is then we start to wonder if we are able to return back to our old lifestyle, patterns, life, only to realise it no longer serves or resonates with who we have become along the way. Some of us continue the journey, others find its time to rest, and for others a new beginning unfolds..... <sup>1</sup>

(Nomad Include Home Nomad, Reincarnation, Life-paths, Astral traveling, traveling to other planets, Astronauts, Natives.

Other different types of nomads are listed in this link <https://becomenomad.com/different-nomadic-lifestyles/><sup>1</sup> which include also those that travel for work and thus live in more than one or many places, have more than one home around the world for many reasons which includes reasons of having many or more than one family , spiritual pursuits, creative pursuits, inventors, working for companies that require traveling and moving constantly, circumstances such as unjustifiable wars, digital nomads that move and explore various destinations or for other reasons but make a living on technology, house-sitting, educational purposes, and traveling for a few months per year staying at holiday destinations, camping or remote sites, motor-home lifestyle and so on.

So doesn't that mean than that we are ALL nomads?????)

What Otto and I embarked on together lead us unknowingly on a journey that has deepened our personal development, given us remarkable healing, deeper spiritual awareness, essential well being, and an inexhaustible connection to nature. Remembering simplicity and more importantly in how to live fully in the moment. That would have been one of my most challenging lessons to have mastered.

Did you know that before meeting Otto I had already begun to master not having a diary that would have everything scheduled right to the minute!!!!!! Yep that is how I used to live, on a diary filled with even scheduling when I would eat in the morning and what I will do before going to bed. OH MY GOD what was I on seriously!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Imagine adding to the equation of not having a diary as such any more and not wearing a watch!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Then add extra components to the equation such as living fully in the moment and better yet, on top of all that silencing the mind whilst connecting to nature. That was a learning journey in itself. All the while learning to be spontaneous, flexible and adaptable to change.

What was also bold was the deep desire to step outside as much as possible from being in a confined ‘box’ or matrix. I did not want to compromise, be bullied into, or forced to compromise my values or cherished dreams anymore. I could not understand after I began to awake, what the purpose of the 'hierarchy' was. It was such a waste of time, money and resources. It no longer made any sense to me. It was about competition, competing with one another, it involved dictatorship and controlling tactics, and an abuse of authority, whilst everyone along the hierarchy thought were authority, with no one in specific taking responsibility for their actions. It was like a ladder that we climbed with only a few that did good and stood in truth whilst the most were trully puppets losing their values and morals..... No one really benefits.

Those awakenings made me realise that my worth is far more important than trying to fit in to be accepted. It takes enormous strength and courage to stand for truth.

The ‘old story’ of my life no longer has a purpose or significance, and as the whispers of my heart amplifies so does my love for life to live it fully in the Light.

“Hear the ‘Whispers of the Universe’...As a teacher of the symbolic language of the Universe....whether we are conscious of it or not, the universe is communicating to us through signs. Native peoples have always known how to interpret these powerful messages, but with the development of technology and the increasing stress of our modern lives, we have become more and more removed from our connection to the earth and from our inner wisdom. We have lost our ability to decipher the signs that surround us and that appears in our dream, and we are largely unable to tap in to our innate intuition...reconnect with the magic of our inner selves so that we may properly interpret these signs and the true meanings of our dreams- and make the right decisions and choices in our lives...”

Its essence silently communicates itself to you and reflects your own essence back to you.*

Eckhart Tolle

The journey is about "gaining knowledge, understanding, experience, wisdom, insights, values, appreciation, humbleness, adventure, freedom, lessons, discovering, growth, finding your roots."

Because of you dear path and 'old story' I realise I am dearly Blessed for who and what I have become and what I Trully AM. Because of you, Love propels me, hope motivates me and creation inspired me. Because of you, I am encouraged to honour intensely love and light into my life.
