Subject: Where were YOU.....?
Importance: High

Where were YOU.....?

“Where were you when there were cries of help?

Where were you when there were pleas for help?

Where were you when there was desperation to make a change?

Where were you when they plotted against humanity?

Where were you when they created havoc on Earth?

Were you a part of it or the victim?

Were you the initiator or the sufferer?

Where you the ignorant or the arrogant?

Where you the helper or the obstruction?

Were you aware?

Did you know?

Where are you now?

What path are you on? What path have you chosen in this changing world?

What will you do to help now?

What will you do to make a difference now?

What sort of difference will it be? For the better?”

“Whenever they reach into the light to silence the truth, the light shines upon their face and burns them. They reach their arms into the light of truth, and their arms turn to dust. Whenever they try to fight truth head-on, they cannot help but show the world what they really are.”

Caitlin Johnstone

“Mateship is starting to crumble....mates no longer back each other up where harm is a concern. ‘cover-ups’ are no longer.”

“To gain everything the world has to offer you and lose your soul means you have gained nothing and lost everything.”

Elyon

He that loses his soul....to gain the world, makes a very bad bargain for himself, and will sit down at last an unspeakable loser.instead of the advantage he promised himself, he is ruined to all intents and purposes, is irreparably broken.

AutumnWynd777

Sooner or later, earthly things will fade away. And that person will have lost the only part of himself that lasts forever.
